National Archives and Records Administration (NARA).

Direct final rule.

SUMMARY:

NARA is adding four new official logos. One is the new agency-wide official logo for use on agency correspondence and other communications and publicity media. The other three logos are for new offices within NARA—the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS), the Controlled Unclassified Information Office (CUI), and the National Declassification Center (NDC).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

For the purposes of agency recognition and branding, and in compliance with the Office of Management and Budget's Memorandum 10-23, Guidance for Agency Use of Third-Party Web sites and Applications, and the agency's Open Government initiatives, the Archivist has designated a NARA-wide official agency logo. This logo is for use on agency letterhead, all agency social media sites, and other agency communications or publicity media as a consistent branding image for agency recognition. The logo does not replace NARA's official seals.

The second logo is for the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS). The OPEN Government Act of 2007 amended the Freedom of Information Act, or FOIA (5 U.S.C. 552) to create the OGIS within NARA. As part of its statutory duties as ombudsman of the Federal FOIA program, OGIS has developed an office logo for instant recognition of OGIS and its programs and services across the Federal government and amongst FOIA requesters.

The third logo is for the Controlled Unclassified Information (CUI) Office. The Archivist of the United States' Memorandum, dated May 21, 2008, established the CUI Office within NARA and its purpose is to develop and implement policy standards for CUI, guided by Presidential direction. The CUI logo is a symbol of NARA's policy office for CUI and has been designed to convey recognition of the standardization of CUI policy across the Federal government.

The fourth logo is for the National Declassification Center (NDC). The NDC was established in accordance with Section 3.7 of Executive Order 13526, by the Archivist of the United States on December 30, 2009. Its mission is to align people, processes, and technologies to advance the declassification and public release of historically valuable permanent records while maintaining national security. The NDC logo is being adopted to provide a recognizable, standard brand for the NDC and its activities.

Permission is required for the replication or use of these logos.

This rule is effective upon publication for good cause as permitted by the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 553\(d\)\(3\)). NARA believes that delaying the effective date for 30 days is unnecessary as this rule represents minor technical amendments and there are no changes to the public's ability to utilize its logos or of services to the public. In addition, the public will benefit immediately from recognition of NARA's new official logo when it appears on documents. (□ printed page 1524)

This direct final rule is not a significant regulatory action for the purposes of Executive Order 12866 and has not been reviewed by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB). As required by the Regulatory Flexibility Act, it is hereby certified that this rule will not have a significant impact on a substantial number of small business entities because this rule applies to the agency by adding new agency logos. This rule does not have any federalism implications.
